Companies registered with government.co.za are now additionally submitted to the search engine www.google.com to reach more people that search for products and companies. The submission to Google is without extra charges and represents another service by African Directory Services (Pty) Ltd for its customers. This is not an offer from Google Inc. and the free Google submission service provided by African Directory Services (Pty) Ltd does not represent a contractual agreement between African Directory Services (Pty) Ltd and Google Inc. Submissions can also be performed by the customer themselves. Providing complete customer information is critical for maximum exposure within the directory itself.
